

According to Christ

(Colossians 2:1-10)

In the New Testament we have letters, epistles written by Paul,
That hearts may be encouraged, the Good News shared for all.

A church being knit together, bound together with love,
Blessed with a full assurance, from our Heavenly Father above.

In whom are hidden treasures, of wisdom and knowledge of all,
Held by the Father and by Christ, the mystery of the Gospel call.

Beware of smooth talking persuaders, who can fool those that hear,
Things that sound good to the listener, faith based on lies and fear.

Therefore as you have received Christ, so walk in the Light,
Rooted, built up and established, in Christ with power and might.

Again be careful no one cheats you, through empty deceit,
Teaching the traditions of men, then your faith will be incomplete.

In Christ the fullness of the Godhead, yes in three there is One,
Sharing heavenly completeness, the Father, the Spirit and the Son.

*Jay Launius – 2020
Maud church of Christ
Maud, Texas*