

The Chosen Stone

(1 Peter 2:4-9)

As we come to Christ for strength, just as to a living stone,
Rejected by men but chosen of God, we are never alone.

We too are like living stones, built up in a spiritual abode,
Royal priests offering sacrifices to God, true and ever so bold.

He is the chief cornerstone, Jesus Christ is His precious name,
If we believe on Him we'll never worry, or ever be put to shame.

Woe to those who reject Him, a stumbling block He will be,
A rock of offence to the disobedient, heaven never to see.

Believers are a chosen generation, to carry on the Gospel call,
A royal priesthood to do God's will, sharing saving power to all.

A holy nation of God's special people, giving God the praise,
Saving us from the darkness, and to the light He did raise.

People who did not deserve mercy, but now received God's grace,
But now living for Him daily, one day we'll see the Father's face.
