

“Would You Give it Up for Me?”

(Romans 14; 1 Corinthians 8)

I'm a brand new Christian, wet behind the ears,
I still don't know much about the bible, and have a lot of fears.

I'm afraid I can't measure up or past temptations' test.
Though I want to follow Jesus and do my very best.

My faith is young and tender, easily led astray,
To return back to the life I once led and there forever stay.

But now I see you doing things that I myself cannot do,
It would violate my conscience and to the Lord would not be true.

You might think it is alright to practice liberty in front of me,
But my spirit is immature and sin is all I see.

Will you be willing, to sacrifice your freedom for me?
While I grow in truth and spirit till perfected one day be.
