

When I Am Tempted

(1 John 2:15-16)

We're not to love the world,
The things that draw us near.
Instead of spiritual blessings,
Its physical things we hold dear.

The selfish desires I feel
Deep within my bones,
Are to be resisted
Trusting in the Lord alone.

All the things I see
And desire with all my might,
I must look away
And fight with all my might!

I'm proud of my possessions,
Puffing my chest out wide,
But I must be humble
And show the Master's side.

If I love the world,
Things not of the Father you see,
When this life is done,
On what side of heaven will I be?
