

A New You

(Romans 6:1-11)

In the Roman letter, there in Chapter six
I read that I have died to sin, escaped the devil's dirty tricks.

Baptized into Jesus Christ, baptized into His death
Just as He was raised from the dead, I too take a fresh breath.

By the glory of God from the grave He was taken,
So that by God's grace a new person has awakened.

The old person that used to be, was crucified with Him,
Now dead to evil deeds, dead to those things dim.

So now being free from sin, a new person I can be
Letting my light shine, to show Christ living in me.

Having been raised with Christ, I now have a guarantee,
I don't have to fear death, because I've been set free.

Now I live daily, showing God's grace His wonderful gift
Helping and loving others, hoping their spirits to lift.

Walking in newness of life, being found faithful I will succeed
I'm alive to God in Christ Jesus, He is my Lord indeed!
