

A Good Preacher

(1 Timothy 5:1-24)

Most folks want a good preacher but what does the bible say?
What must a preacher do within God's graces to stay?

He should not scold an older man but like a father treat,
Exhortation and honor to these men he must always repeat.

To the mature woman like his own mother respect he must show,
Love and gentle affection he must give as a minister we all know.

To the younger men and women like brothers and sisters they are,
If he treats the church like his family then with God he will go far.

Then there are the widows, who all need special care,
Especially those with no family then they need support and prayer.

The preacher must respect his elders and double honor to them give,
Never hear accusations or complaining and serve as long as they live.

Preachers should never be prejudice against any people or crowd,
Nor should he be partial to some so his motives aren't under a cloud.

He should never be mean or take part in other people's sin,
Watch his reputation and keep himself pure, then souls he will win.
