

How Shall I Behave?

(1 Timothy 4:1-11)

The Spirit expressly is saying in these latter days,
Some Christians will leave the faith and go their separate ways.

Giving regard to deceiving spirits and demon teachings they will crave,
When I hear their lies and hypocrisy, how will I behave?

Folks conscience will be seared over, so sin they no longer recognize.
Calling good things bad and bad things good, Satan's fog is in their eyes.

Confusing the marriage relationship, saying it's different from God's design.
But folks better read what God has to say and get themselves in line.

Some people say you can't eat certain foods and it's a sin if you dine.
But God gives everything for food, so eat with thanks and you'll be fine.

Our spirits are nourished by the words of faith, good doctrine for us you see
Will I behave according to the word or be selfish and think only of me?

Will I trust in the true Living God, who is the Savior of all the brave?
When faced with temptations from day to day, then how will I behave?

Jay Launius – 2019

Maud church of Christ

Maud, Texas