

Like a Berean

(Acts 17:10-11)

In the book of Acts we read, about the early church,
The Apostles taught the word and for new disciples they did search.

In those days the Spirit helped them, know just what to say,
Believe, repent, confess, be baptized, do it without delay!

There was a group of people, who heard the Apostles teach,
Who were very cautious, about what they heard them preach.

These were noble people, who gladly received the word,
The preaching of Paul and Silas and all the things they heard.

But one thing they did, at the gospel they'd been taught,
To confirm what had been said, so thru the scriptures they sought.

They read the scriptures daily, so that they would know,
All the good news that Paul had said, to see if it was so.

So as a modern-day Christian, their example I must heed,
To be like a Berean, every day the scriptures to read.
