

That's What Dad's Do

He gets up every morning way before the morning dew,
And off to work to support us because that's what Dad's do.

When things get broken around the house and he says go get the glue,
He fixes it up as good as new because that's what Dad's do.

He reads to us the bible in the evening hue,
Teaching us what God says because that's what Dad's do.

When we disobey his instructions and know what we have due,
He dishes out the discipline because that's what Dad's do.

He makes sure that we're at church and sitting in our pew,
Showing us a good example because that's what Dad's do.

When you've believed, repented, confessed and it's time to baptize you,
He happily takes you to the water because that's what Dad's do.

So today as we honor him and give gratitude that is due,
Remember all he has done for us because that's what Dad's do.

Hear, my children, the instruction of a father, And give attention to know understanding; For I give you good doctrine: Do not forsake my law. When I was my father's son, Tender and the only one in the sight of my mother, He also taught me, and said to me: "Let your heart retain my words; Keep my commands, and live. Get wisdom! Get understanding! Do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
