

The Good Liar

It's funny how folks can be so good
Yet not all of the time
They're helpful to most, lending a hand
It seems they're on the heavenly climb

But some good folks I've noticed
And I'm still not quite sure why
Will smile and look you in the face
And tell you a big fat lie!

I can't make it to church this week
They will make sure to say
Then you'll see them on Monday morning
Going about their merry way

Too sick to worship the Lord
It must be a terrible disease
But they'll be at work the next day
Because they have a boss that they must please

I wish that we could be more truthful
When it comes to being absent you see
Don't lie about being sick or too busy
But say I have a weak faith and would you pray for me

Let's all be a little more honest
About what is important to us
To go about life doing what we want
Or to serve God in whom we trust

*Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron,
1 Timothy 4:1-2*

*And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.
Hebrews 10:24-25*

*Jay Launius
Maud church of Christ
Maud, Texas*