

Romance in the Bible

The bible is God's word, a book for all things.
It's good for doctrine and reproof, of the Lord's truth it surely rings!

It gives us advice on living, a pure and righteous life.
It even tells us how to behave as a husband and a wife.

We read of Abram and Sara, a nation to conceive,
Of Isaac and Rebekah, Jacob and Esau they'd receive.

Jacob's love for Rachel, fourteen years he labored for her.
Later Samson and Delilah, a bad romance that would stir.

King David saw Bathsheba, bathing in the night.
Murder and wife stealing, all displeasing in God's sight.

Joseph went ahead and took Mary, even though she was with child,
The Savior of the world she would bear, a King meek and mild.

In the church Aquila and Priscilla, worked along with Paul.
Diligently working beside him to share the gospel with all.

So we are to love each other as Christ His life did give.
To have and to hold and to love each other, as long as we both shall live!
